Leslie Gelbman Named Executive Editor-at-Large at St. Martin's Press

New York, N.Y., Monday, May 2, 2016 – Leslie Gelbman has been named Executive Editor-at-Large at St. Martin's Press, it was announced today by Sally Richardson, President & Publisher of St. Martin's Press. Her appointment is effective immediately.

Ms. Gelbman comes to St. Martin's Press after 27 years at Berkley, most recently as President of the Berkley Publishing Group at Penguin Random House LLC. Prior to that she led the Berkley NAL Group and was President of the Mass Market Paperback Division. At Berkley she built and guided a highly-regarded list of bestselling novelists whom she personally edited including Nora Roberts, Ken Follett, Patricia Cornwell, Jayne Ann Krentz, and Julie Garwood.

Sally Richardson says, "We are delighted to have Leslie join our team at St. Martin's Press. We have long admired Leslie's legendary gift for acquiring and editing some of the most popular storytellers of our time and she will continue to do the same for us. I am thrilled that she will now be right down the hall – a great new addition to SMP."

Leslie Gelbman says, "I am honored and excited to be joining SMP and I look forward to doing what I love most--working directly with talented authors."
