FLATIRON BOOKS ACQUIRES BOOKS BY VICE PRESIDENT JOE BIDEN AND DR. JILL BIDEN

(April 5, 2017 - New York, NY) Bob Miller, president and publisher of Flatiron Books, announced today that the Macmillan division will publish two non-fiction works by Vice President Joe Biden, as well as one title with Dr. Jill Biden. The world deal was handled by CAA on behalf of the Bidens, with Flatiron Books' editorial director Colin Dickerman to edit.

The first yet-untitled book by Vice President Biden will explore one momentous year in which he tackles some of the most difficult challenges in the White House while enduring the death of his son Beau. It tells the story of not just a politician, but of a father, grandfather, friend and husband.

Of the deal, Bob Miller says "We're so deeply honored to be the publisher of these books by Vice President and Dr. Biden. The Vice President's book promises to give us all a deeper understanding of recent political history, but it will clearly also be a book about the values that have given the Vice President strength in both good times and bad."

Flatiron Books is a division of Macmillan. For more information please contact Flatiron Books Publicity Director, Marlena Bittner at \(646\) 307-5078 / marlena.bittner@flatironbooks.com.
