MITZI ANGEL TO REJOIN FSG AS PUBLISHER

Mitzi Angel will be rejoining Farrar, Straus and Giroux as Senior Vice President and Publisher later this year. She will oversee all of FSG's editorial and marketing functions and will report to Jonathan Galassi. Sean McDonald, Publisher of FSG's MCD imprint, will continue to report to Galassi.

Angel began her publishing career at Vintage and Fourth Estate in London. From 2008 to 2015 she served as Publisher of FSG's Faber and Faber, Inc., imprint in New York, and from 2015 until now as Publisher of Faber and Faber, Ltd. in London. Among the authors Angel has worked with are Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, David Bellos, Rachel Cusk, James Gleick, Garth Greenwell, John Lanchester, Yiyun Li, Ben Lerner, Siddhartha Mukherjee, Paul Murray, and Sally Rooney.

Jonathan Galassi, President of FSG, said, "The very first time I met Mitzi, I was bowled over by her unique combination of sensibility, warmth, openness, and decision, and I knew she was meant to work with us. She has been a beloved and deeply respected presence here, and I'm certain she will make a vital contribution to our work as we look to the future."

Mitzi Angel remarked, "I'm delighted to rejoin my friends and colleagues at FSG. They and the publishing house they work for, led by Jonathan Galassi, represent the best in publishing worldwide."
