Macmillan Announces Extension to Content Use Guidelines for Teachers, Librarians, & Parents

New York, NY (Thursday, December 17, 2020) – Macmillan Publishers announced today that it will extend its Content Use Guidelines for Teachers, Librarians, and Parents through June 30, 2021.

Under the program, teachers and librarians can live stream or post videos reading Macmillan children's books to their students, and authors can livestream or post videos reading their children's books, provided it is done on a noncommercial basis.

All educators, librarians, and parents who want to participate in the program can learn more here.
